

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR PRESS
FEDERAL MINISTRY OF EDUCATION

PRESS RELEASE

PROF ANWUKAH EXPRESS'S SATISFACTION ON THE CONDUCT OF CBT

The Honourable Minister of State for Education, Prof. Anthony Anwukah has expressed satisfaction with the conduct of 2017 Computer-Based Test by Joint Admissions and Matriculation Board (JAMB) for prospective candidates into tertiary institutions in Nigeria.

Speaking with journalists after monitoring the conduct of the examination in some centres today, Monday, May 15, 2017 in Abuja, the Minister said that the infrastructures put in place by JAMB has made it possible for the conduct to take-off smoothly.

Describing the conduct of the examination as excellent, Prof Anwukah commended the management of JAMB for measures taken to ensure hitch-free conduct of the exercise.

He enjoined the candidates to avoid any misconduct that can disqualify them from writing the examination.

It would be recalled that this year CBT commenced on Saturday, May 13 and it would end on May 20, 2017.

Minister of State for Education, Prof. Anthony Anwukah and JAMB Registrar, Prof. Ishaq Oloyede, during the monitoring of the conduct of CBT in one of the centres in FCT.

JAMB Registrar, Prof. Ishaq Oloyede (1) explaining some operations to the Minister of State for Education, Prof. Anthony Anwukah (3rd right) while monitoring the conduct of the CBT at Bwari, Abuja.

